SCHOOL COUNSELING NEEDS ASSESSMENTS

EDITABLE Printable and Digital Forms for Faculty, Parents, and Students

Student Needs Assessment - DIRECTIONS

- Four versions included: upper elementary and lower elementary, each digital and hard copy
 - Upper elementary (3rd-6th):
 - Students give their opinion on whether or not their class needs help with 10 different topics.
 - They can respond YES, MAYBE, or NO for each.
 - Designed to be completed independently during a whole group lesson or mini-lesson.
 - For electronic version, be sure to add teacher names into dropdown options! If you add a box for students to type in additional ideas/thoughts, I recommend also adding a prompt for their name.

 - Lower elementary (K-2nd):
 - Similar to above, but focused on 6 different topics with visuals and only two response options (yes or no). (Note: Due to clip artist's terms of use, graphics are not editable or moveable. However, the text is.)
 - Google form version also includes visuals. Since scrolling is a developing skill, the google form version is presented one question at a time to keep everyone at the same place as you read aloud.

Faculty Needs Assessments

- Digital vs. hard copy: You know your faculty best and what works for them AND what works best for you. You can also give them all both options.
- To use the hard copy form, simply edit whatever text you want to edit in the following pages. I've included notes of edits/personalizations that I use for my own school.
- To use the google form, click the link below. You will immediately be prompted to "make a copy". Click this button and you will officially have your own digital needs assessment to work with! All questions and responses are fully editable.
 - Beginning of the Year: LINK
 - Mid-Year: LINK
 - End of the Year: LINK
 - When you are done editing it how you want, click the button in the upper right hand corner labeled "SEND" to either add email addresses of recipients or generate a shareable survey link.
- I recommend administering the BOY needs assessment around six week into the school year, the mid-year in December (if you start in August) or January (if you start in September), and the end of year assessment two-three weeks before school ends.
