

End of the Year (May/June)

Reflection: Cootie Catcher

Directions: Students will color and fold “cootie catchers” with end of the year processing and reflection questions inside. Then students will partner up (you included if there’s an odd number) to ask and answer the questions.

Optional Extension: Students complete the sunglasses worksheet, drawing or writing about a memory from this past year and what they’re looking forward to next year.

FRUIT 	2 What is something hard that you overcame this year?	1 What is 1 favorite memory you have from this year?	TRIP
3 What is 1 feeling you have about next year and why?	8 What are you grateful for from this year?	7 What are you excited about for next year?	8 What are you grateful for from this year?

the RESPONSIVE counselor

Hey y'all! I'm Sara. I create resources for elementary students, counselors, and teachers that improve social emotional learning and classroom culture. My focus is making things that are effective and engaging for WIGGLY + CHATTY learners and that utilize wording and scenarios accessible to underserved and ELL populations.

Education

Experience

I started my post-grad career as a school-based therapist before becoming an elementary school counselor. Social and emotional learning in youth is my passion, whether through large group prevention, individual intervention, or parent and teacher education! I have been an elementary school counselor since 2012, providing a comprehensive school counseling program to a diverse population.
